Affiliate Members

Affiliate membership is open to any statewide, regional or local nonprofit association or organization whose purpose is to analyze, promote or provide education regarding policies and services that benefit children and families. Affiliate members have access to the same benefits as regular members, may participate in membership meetings, committees and work groups, but are not voting members of the association and are not eligible for election as a board member.

Please submit the completed application and the first-year annual dues of $500.00 to the address listed above.
